Data Protection Clause

The Malta Gaming Authority (the 'Authority') is a data controller under the terms of the Data Protection Act (Chapter 440 of the Laws of Malta). The information provided on this legal form will be processed for the purposes necessary for the Authority to carry out its functions and meet its legal obligations.

The data may be shared with third parties who fulfill a service on behalf of and under the express instructions of the Authority and other bodies where it is necessary to do so in order to carry out the Authority's functions and where the Authority is legally required or permitted to do so.

The Authority will not discriminate unfairly against any subject of a disclosure on the basis of conviction or other information revealed. However, the existence of a conviction for an offence deemed relevant by the Authority is a ground to refuse a licence.

Any material or information which you send to us and which we record will be treated as confidential and will only be disclosed to others where it is necessary to do so in order to carry out the Authority's functions or where the Authority is required by law to disclose the information.

Note – Your application will not be considered unless all relevant questions have been completed and the required documents submitted in full. Failure to provide the above information or to provide further information when requested by the Malta Gaming Authority (the 'Authority') may result in your application being determined based on the information available to the Authority at the time, which may affect the outcome of your application.

Warning - Any misrepresentation in completing this form may render the attached Declaration Form void.

Certification of Documents Note:

Where documents are to be certified as true copies, certification must be carried out by an independent natural person who is authorised to do so under the laws of an EU/EEA jurisdiction or other jurisdiction approved by the MGA, such as a legal professional, accountancy professional, notary or Registrar of Companies or other registry (or equivalent). The certifier must make a written statement in the English Language confirming that the document is a true copy of the original document and that he/she has seen and verified the original document. Furthermore, the certified true copy must be dated and must include the full name, designation and contact details of the certifier.

If the document is composed of more than one page the certifier can either:

- a. certify each page individually; or
- b. certify the top of the first page and add a statement detailing the number of pages of the original documentation seen.
