public lotto, including any matters the Minister may deem necessary or expedient to regulate in consequence of the computerization of the public lotto;

(i) anything that may or is to be prescribed.

Tickets to show proportion of the chances of winning.

6. Every ticket shall bear upon the face of it a statement in Maltese of the proportion of the chances of winning.

Deposit of computer discs.
Substituted by: VIII.1964.3.
Amended by: XI.1971.2.
Substituted by: XXIV.1990.3.

7. (1) The computer discs containing the information concerning the stakes shall be delivered by the receivers before the drawing in such place, in the presence of such officials and under such measures of security as may be prescribed.

(2) If for any cause whatsoever the discs aforesaid are not delivered as provided in sub-article (1), or if the same are delivered in a defective state, the stakes therein contained shall be considered as void, and the person staking shall be entitled to a refund of the amount staked against the delivery of the ticket.

Notice of winnings.
Amended by: VII.1949.7.

8. (1) Notice of all winnings must be given to the Director within thirty days from the date of the respective drawing.

(2) Moreover, the winner shall present the ticket for examination and for the payment of the amount due which shall be made on the date to be fixed by the officer in charge.

Time within which winnings may be claimed.
Amended by: VII.1947.2;

XXIV.1990.4.

9. The right of claiming winnings shall be barred by the lapse of thirty days from the date of the respective drawing and a claim so barred may not be entertained by the Director:

Provided that if the last day of a claim period falls on a Sunday or a public holiday, the period shall be extended until the first following working day.

Conditions to which payment of winning is subject.
Amended by: VIII.1964.4;
XXXI.1966.2;
XXIV.1990.5.

10. The holder of a winning ticket shall not be entitled to payment -

- (a) if the ticket is not whole, or if it contains any alteration or correction of the numbers registered thereon; or
- (b) if it does not tally in all respects with the records stored in the computer as may be prescribed:

Provided that, where the winning ticket is not whole, the Minister responsible for finance may in his discretion authorise the payment of the prize if he is satisfied that the part produced contains the necessary elements to establish the authenticity of the ticket or that the parts produced are parts of the same ticket and contain such elements.

11. (1) (a) Every kind of public lottery or tombola is prohibited, unless permission has been granted previously by the Director of Public Lotto. In granting such permission the Director of Public Lotto may impose such conditions as he may deem expedient.

(b) For the purposes of this Ordinance the expression "lottery" shall include any scheme for distributing prizes under which the recipients or the number or the amounts of the prizes are set upon the outcome of a future uncertain event or of a combination of future uncertain events, and which is not permitted under any specific provision of law.

Prohibition of public lotteries or tombolas.
Substituted by:
 VII. 1946.2.
Amended by:
 VII. 1947.3;
 VII. 1949.2,4,6,7;
 VII. 1950.3;
 XV. 1956.2;

 XXIV. 1990.6;
 VIII. 1998.2;
 XI. 2000.26;
 L.N. 408 of 2007.

(2) The following duty shall be levied and collected by the Director of Public Lotto on behalf of the Government of Malta:

- (i) in respect of the issue of a permit for the holding of each public tombola session, a duty of thirty-four euro and ninety-four cents (34.94), or such duty as the Minister responsible for finance may from time to time by Order in the Gazette establish;
- (ii) in respect of each public lottery a duty equivalent to twenty five per centum of the value, established to the satisfaction of the Director of Public Lotto, of the prize or prizes offered;

Duty leviable.

Provided that the Director of Public Lotto may grant exemption from payment of the duty aforesaid in specific instances when a public lottery or tombola is promoted and directed by any society, institute or private person and the net proceeds thereof are intended for a religious purpose approved by the competent local Ecclesiastical Authorities, or for a charitable purpose, or for the furtherance of the Boy Scout or Girl Guide movement, or for the encouragement of fine arts, or for any other purpose approved in writing by the Minister responsible for finance.

(3) Any Police officer not below the rank of sub-Inspector, or any member of the Police Force below that rank duly authorized by a superior officer, or any other person duly authorised by the Director of Public Lotto to that effect, may enter any place where he has reason to believe that a public lottery or tombola is being held, with the object of seeing whether the provisions of this article or any regulations made hereunder are being complied with.

Power of entry.

Admission to public lotteries or tombolas only by means of tickets which comply with regulations.

(4) No person shall be admitted or allowed to take part in any public lottery or tombola for the holding of which permission has been granted as aforesaid, except by means of tickets or cards which comply with the provisions of any regulations which the Minister responsible for finance may make from time to time under this article:

Provided that the Director of Public Lotto may, in cases of permitted public lotteries where no such tickets or cards are intended to be issued, grant exemption from this requirement on such conditions as he may deem expedient.

Production of accounts of receipts and payments.

(5) Where permission has been granted under this article for the holding of public tombolas or lotteries, the Director of Public Lotto shall have the power to require the person to whom such permission is granted to produce an account of the receipts and payments in respect of such lotteries or tombolas, and to verify the same on oath.

Power to make regulations.

(6) The Minister responsible for finance may make regulations for securing the payment of duty leviable under this article and generally for carrying the provisions of this article into effect and in particular for the supply and use of tickets and stamps or for the stamping and marking of tickets sent to be stamped or marked by the Director of Public Lotto and for securing the defacement of tickets or stamps when used.

Meaning of public lottery or tombola.

(7) Any lottery or tombola held on the premises of any club shall, for the purposes of this article, be deemed to be a public lottery or tombola, and the grantee of a permit to hold a public tombola mentioned in paragraph (i) of sub-article (2) hereof shall exhibit such permit in a place which is easily accessible for inspection.

Offences and penalties.

(8) Any person guilty of an offence against the provisions of this article and of any regulation made thereunder shall be liable to a fine (multa) of one thousand and one hundred and sixty-four euro and sixty-nine cents (1,164.69) or double the amount of duty which should have been paid whichever is the greater.
